RED ZONES

4x60 | Producer: Frederick Gillingham | In Production

Red Zones takes viewers on a journey into the heart of the world's last remaining untamed frontiers. Despite the rapidly developing modern world, there are still fragile territories which defy development and continue to operate outside of law and order. However the prohibited practices and illicit economies that are fueling these hidden worlds are also destroying them and the people who habit them. Through intimate and unfiltered access, this series will meet the heroes, villains and victims who struggle to survive, protect and profit off the dark side of the map.

DANGEROUS JOURNEYS: TANZANIA

1x60' | Producer: Maximus Films | Production Year: 2023

Deep in the heart of Tanzania... lies the country's most dangerous road. Every day it is a risky race for trucks, buses and passenger cars, at any cost. Whether with trucks or fully loaded tankers, dangerous passing maneuvers are the rule, not the exception. Signs for "No Overtaking" - are understood from the young drivers as a recommendation and not as a regulation. The most dangerous section of the road, the Kitonga, is just eight kilometers long but the gradient is extreme and the abyss is deep ...

UMOJA - WHERE WOMEN RULE

1x60' | Producer: Maximus Films | Production year: 2023

In the middle of one of the most misogynistic regions in the world, there is a place where only women call the shots: Umoja in Kenya. The name is no coincidence: Umoja means 'solidarity' in Swahili. The women who live here stand together against the patriarchy of their tribe: the Samburu are ruled by men. But they have no access to Umoja. For Jane Lengo'pe, Umoja is her home, the 48 women her family. That is also what she wants for Nairiamu Ledokode, the new girl in the village. The 37-year-old fled from her violent husband.
